

COURSE BACKGROUND

This course is a fully interactive course of Modern Standard Arabic, which is spoken and understood in all Arab countries. You will enjoy learning the basics of Arabic conversation, vocabulary and some grammar. By the end of the course, you will be able to speak and understand Arabic as it is used in many common situations. It will teach you to introduce and describe yourself and others, and to use the language to speak about subjects that interest you. You will know how to use vocabulary for travel and how to order at a restaurant and much more.

Course Instructor: Fatma

Fatma, a native of Tunisia, is able to speak several European languages fluently. She has lived and worked in Italy for several years where she has got her Bachelor's degree in Architecture and has taught Arabic for four years in Venice. Fatma also provided translation and interpreting services for the jurisdictional authorities of Venice and other private agencies. She is passionate about the marine environment and she earned her first Master's degree in Marine Planning from three known universities in Europe. During her second Master's degree in Environmental Conservation at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, she tutored Arabic to a number of students.
